The 2020 Mr. Bearcat Award

SIGMA SIGMA was founded at the University of Cincinnati in the year 1898 by a group of young men whose purpose was to foster and encourage college spirit, and to enhance the glory of the University of Cincinnati in the college world.

Since 1949, Sigma Sigma has honored one graduating man each year with the Mr. Bearcat Award.

The Mr. Bearcat Award is to recognize and honor the outstanding graduating senior man who has achieved academic success, demonstrated leadership in diverse settings, and made a significant contribution to the University of Cincinnati, all while displaying “Bearcat spirit.”

Candidates may be nominated by a student, university faculty or staff, or student organization.

The following items must be submitted no later than Sunday, February 16, 2020:

(1) This completed form
(2) Nomination letter from nominator (1 page)
(3) Candidate’s resume
(4) Short essay (1-2 pages) from the candidate on his contribution to the University of Cincinnati and Bearcat spirit

The 2020 Mr. Bearcat Award Candidate Nomination

Candidate name: ________________________________________________________________
Preferred address: ______________________________________________________________
Preferred phone: _______________________________________________________________
Preferred email: _______________________________________________________________
College/major: _________________________________________________________________
Nominating student, university faculty or staff, or student organization:

____________________________________________________________________________
Preferred address: ______________________________________________________________
Preferred phone: _______________________________________________________________
Preferred email: _______________________________________________________________

Submit all items for consideration, or questions, via email to Russell Best, russell.best@uc.edu.
You may also reach Russell via phone (513) 556-4013.