Georgia – Notre Dame – The Game of the Decade

Many of you like this writer share "great memories in sports" like my memories of the Georgia – Notre Game in South Bend two years ago, and the Rose Bowl game that year. I was also present during the "flea flicker" against Alabama, and the "Lindsay Scott" pass catch against Florida. Therefore, it is a no-brainer for me to be present for the September 21 home game against Notre Dame. That game will set an all-time attendance record at Sanford Stadium, as additional temporary seats are being added.

The two teams are coming into the game ranked in the Top 10, and broadcasters have given the game prime time for an 8:00 p.m. kick-off. The network gets one prime time broadcast a season, and selected the Georgia – Notre Dame game for this honor.

Surprisingly, dating back to 2010, only once has Georgia hosted a match-up between Top 10 teams, much less a heralded program like Notre Dame. The tailgate at ETA Chapter of Chi Phi and Arnocroft will definitely be "off the charts," and we hope everyone attends, even without tickets to the game. It will be worth it! The announced time for the tailgate is 2:00 p.m., but many will come earlier. Don't miss the fun! But watch out for parking. You may want to consider parking a five-minute walk away behind Clarke-Central High School, where there is an incredibly large parking lot with $20 parking.

The tailgate schedule for the rest of the fall will be as follows:

1. October 12, 2019 – South Carolina, always a big game.
2. October 19, 2019 – Kentucky - Homecoming. (Most of the activity will be at the Chi Phi House because of Homecoming and Parents' Weekend.)

3. November 9, 2019 – Missouri.
4. November 23, 2019 – Texas A&M.

If you need tickets, the best sites to buy tickets are: SECSeats.com, StubHub.com, EncourTicketStore.com, Frontpagetickets.com and Ticketrails.com. For single game tickets, you can go to <https://georgiadors.com/>, click on the tickets tab, the on the buy tickets tab. You also can usually buy tickets at the northeastern side of the stadium on the bridge, and if you wait until game time, you can probably buy tickets at a fair price.

ETA Welcomes 38 New Pledges

We had pledges from five different private schools in Atlanta, five pledges from the Athens area, and pledges from Madison, Marietta, and Albany, Georgia. We added our usual number of pledges from Chi Phi strongholds like Virginia and D.C., Louisiana and Texas. We also have pledges from far-off places like California, Connecticut, Indiana, and Mississippi. The names, home towns and high schools are listed below.
